March 1 8:30 AM–6 PM
AISC, AASC, Bunche, CSRC
Thinking Gender 2024: “Dystopian Realities, Feminist Utopias”

Thinking Gender 2024’s conference theme, “Dystopian Realities, Feminist Utopias,” considers what it means to live in the cataclysmic wake of racial capitalism, settler colonialism, and neoliberalism. At the same time, the theme celebrates how feminist, queer, and BIPOC scholarship, activism, and art enact utopias by imagining alternatives to hegemonic structures.

Location: James West Alumni Center, The Collins Conference Room

RSVP link: https://csw.ucla.edu/tg24

---

March 3 2–4 PM
AASC

Tritia Toyota will be joined by discussants Professor Valerie J. Matsumoto (History and Asian American Studies, UCLA) and Visiting Professor Yasuko Takezawa (serving as the Terasaki Chair in U.S.-Japan Relations with UCLA Terasaki Center for Japanese Studies for 2023–2024).

Location: West Los Angeles Buddhist Temple - Social Hall, 2003 Corinth Ave, Los Angeles, CA 90025

RSVP link

---

March 2 12–5 PM
AISC
Race in the Global Past through Native Lenses

In this half-day workshop, we hope to continue the conversation about how to center Native and Indigenous historical narratives in order to change how the history of humanity is conceived, written, and transmitted in institutions of higher education such as UCLA, and more broadly in the world.

Location: Herbert Morris Humanities Seminar Room, Royce Hall Room 306

RSVP link

---

March 8 8 AM–6:30 PM
AASC
2024 AAPI Policy Summit: Moving from Collective Knowledge to Action

The Summit brings together lawmakers, academics, community-based organizations, students, philanthropic and private sector leaders working to break down silos and advance infrastructures to better serve the needs of AAPI communities. Don’t miss a special lunch keynote address by Attorney General of California Rob Bonta.

Location: UCLA Meyer and Renee Luskin Conference Center - Centennial Ballroom

RSVP link