

American Indian Studies Center (AISC)
 Asian American Studies Center (AASC)
 Ralph J. Bunche Center for African American Studies (Bunche)
 Chicano Studies Research Center (CSRC)

June 2025

iac.ucla.edu

June 2

Mon.

7-9 PM

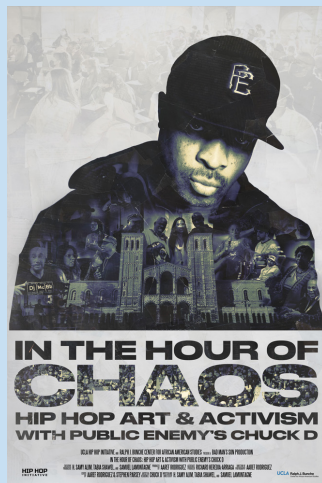

Bunche

In the Hour of Chaos: Hip Hop Art & Activism with Public Enemy's Chuck D

Join us for a special screening of In the Hour of Chaos: Hip Hop Art & Activism with Public Enemy's Chuck D. The film chronicles Chuck D's time as the Hip Hop Initiative's inaugural artist in residence while celebrating five decades of Hip Hop history and movement making.

Location: Hammer Museum

Event website

June 11

Wed.

3-4 PM

AASC

"Foundations and Futures" Preview Event and Reception

You are invited to join us to explore the Foundations and Futures Multimedia Textbook, the most comprehensive, scholar-informed, online history of Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders. Meet the editor, authors, and fellow educators to learn how you can bring this innovative ethnic studies resource into K-12 classrooms.

Location: UC Irvine Student Center, Pacific Ballroom

RSVP: <https://tinyurl.com/uciff>

June 21

Sat.

4-6 PM

CSRC

Opening Reception "On the Side of Angels: Latina Lesbian Activism"

In collaboration with the Vincent Price Art Museum, the UCLA Chicano Studies Research Center (CSRC) presents the exhibition On the Side of Angels: Latina Lesbian Activism. Part of the Latina Futures 2050 Lab initiative, this exhibition presents selections from the archival collections of prominent Latina lesbians Yolanda Retter Vargas, Laura Esquivel, and Elena Popp, narrating their involvement in LGBTQ+, immigrant, labor, and housing justice movements from the 1980s through the late 2000s.

Location: Vincent Price Art Museum, 1301 Avenida Cesar Chavez, Monterey Park, CA 91754

Event website:

<https://www.chicano.ucla.edu/events/opening-reception-side-angels-latina-lesbian-activism>

June 6

Fri.

5-8 PM

CSRC

Raíces y Ritmos: The 3rd Annual Afro-Latinx Culture Show

This annual culture show celebrates Afro-Latinx cultures and histories across Latin America and the Caribbean through dance, music, food, oral histories, and guest artist performances.

Tickets are free, but RSVP required:

<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/raices-y-ritmos-tickets-125604846779>

Location: UCLA Covell Commons, 330 De Neve Drive, Los Angeles, CA 90095

June 28

Sat.

2-4 PM

AASC

Preserving Our Histories and the Freedom to Tell Our Stories

A Conversation with Director Julie Ha featuring a welcome by Actor and Director Randall Park

Exclusive author event and preview of the UCLA Asian American Studies Center's Foundations and Futures:

Asian American and Pacific Islander Multimedia

Textbook. Journalist, author, and Emmy-award-winning filmmaker Julie Ha reflects on her experience retelling this monumental story, explores the importance of preserving historical narratives across communities, and unveils, for the first time, her textbook chapter, Free Chol Soo Lee: How a Lone Death Row Inmate Sparked a Movement.

This is the second in a series of Foundations and Futures' chapter preview events.

Location: UCLA School of Law, Room 1347

Registration: <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/preserving-our-histories-and-the-freedom-to-tell-our-stories-tickets-1345726597479?aff=oddtcreator>

