

American Indian Studies Center (AISC)
 Asian American Studies Center (AASC)
 Ralph J. Bunche Center for African American Studies (Bunche)
 Chicano Studies Research Center (CSRC)

March 2025

iac.ucla.edu

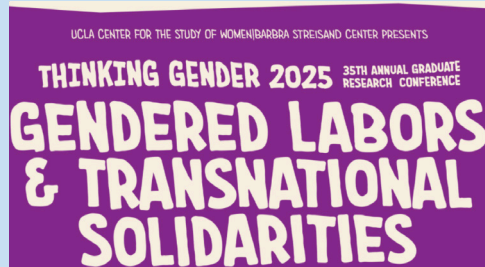

March 7

Fri.

8:30–6 PM

AISC, AASC, CSRC

Thinking Gender 2025 Graduate Student Research Conference
 “Gendered Labors and Transnational Solidarities”

Keynote address by labor rights organizer Adriana Paz Ramírez of the International Domestic Workers Federation.

The conference will explore the rich repertoire of organizing strategies and spotlight contemporary and historical campaigns led by precarious workers worldwide. This event convenes feminist, queer, and BIPOC scholars, artists, and organizers to reflect on labor solidarity and care, imagining a more livable and equitable society.

Location: James West Alumni Center \(JWAC\) - Collins Conference Room

Registration: <https://www.ticketleap.events/tickets/csw-streisand-center/thinking-gender-2025-graduate-student-research-conference>

March 11

Tues.

1–2:30 PM

CSRC

Book talk: Karina Alma presents
 "Central American Counterpoetics: Diaspora and Rememory" (University of Arizona Press, 2024)

With special guests Janel Pineda and Rossana Perez

Location: CSRC Library
 - 144 Haines Hall

Event website: <https://www.chicano.ucla.edu/events/book-talk-karina-alma-presents-central-american-counterpoetics-diaspora-and-rememory-0>

March 20

Thurs.

2 PM

CSRC

Webinar: Natural Disasters and Community Well-Being

Join the Latina Futures 2050 Lab for a discussion of community-led responses to natural disasters while examining the intersection of community preservation, environmental justice, and systemic inequality.

Zoom registration: https://us06web.zoom.us/join/registration/webinar/register/WN_YFWgTBjaSFupALwZj8D0nQ#/registration

Latina
 FUTURES
 2050 lab